Unlocking Market Access and Building Reputation through uncommon Management Systems Standards

In today's competitive business landscape, the adoption of ISO standards is pivotal for organizations seeking to secure market access and establish a reputable position. Implementing uncommon tackled ISO standards as ISO21001, ISO50001, ISO 37001, ISO22301, ISO 55001, and ISO 41001 elevate your organization's standing in the market, For example:

ISO 50001 - Energy Management not only enhances energy efficiency but also opens doors to new markets by showcasing your commitment to sustainable practices.

ISO 37001 - Anti-Bribery Management: serves as a shield against bribery risks, demonstrating ethical business conduct and bolstering trust among clients & partners.

ISO 55001 - Asset Management establishes robust asset management practices, enhancing reliability and positioning itself as a trustworthy player in the industry.

ISO 41001 - Facility Management signals to clients and stakeholders that you prioritize operational excellence and sustainability.

ISO 22301 - It enhances business response capabilities, confidence in responses, agile contingencies, improves stakeholder relationships, reducing the impact & frequency of disruptions.

Opening to the World

Depending on the expertise of our auditors and the credibility and support of our accreditation EGAC, QME has started to audit beyond the borders and performed audits & issued certificates for Management Systems in Russia, Bulgaria & Turkey and looking forward to audit in Arab Countries and the rest of the world soon

In July 2024, QME celebrated its anniversary & story of success and issuance of more than 200 Certificates in and outside Egypt.
